With the Brutale 1000 Serie Oro, MV Agusta has made the Brutale even more brutal. This new naked bike is powered by the four-cylinder engine from the F4 RC superbike, which delivers up to 212 hp. Only 300 were built and sold to MV Agusta's most loyal customers. For the wheels, MV Agusta relies on carbon rims. All fairing parts are also formed from carbon fiber laminate. The Italians have also incorporated a host of machined parts and a lithium-ion battery. As a reward for their efforts, the dry weight is listed at 184 kilograms.

This Brutale was originally sold to a motorcycle collector from Düsseldorf. He registered the MV in April 2020 and has ridden it only 1,994 kilometers to date, and only in the finest weather. All accessories, paperwork, and documents are included. This includes the original wooden crate, the box containing the second key and the brochure, the center stand, and the original cover.
